Explore the Heart of Guadalupe Valley

The Guadalupe Valley, located in the heart of Ensenada, is the epicenter of Mexican wine production. As you venture into this picturesque valley, you'll be greeted by rolling hills blanketed in vineyards, each vineyard showcasing the unique characteristics of the region's diverse microclimates.

Toone will take you to a carefully curated selection of wineries, each representing the pinnacle of Ensenada's winemaking artistry. You'll have the exclusive opportunity to taste award-winning vintages, from crisp Sauvignon Blancs to robust Cabernet Sauvignons, while learning about the winemaking techniques and the stories behind each label.

Indulge in Culinary Delights

No wine tour is complete without exquisite cuisine to complement the flavors of the wine. Ensenada is renowned for its culinary scene, offering a tantalizing array of fresh seafood, flavorful Mexican dishes, and international fare.

Toone will arrange for you to dine at some of the region's finest restaurants, where you'll savor delectable dishes crafted with fresh, local ingredients. You'll experience the harmonious marriage of food and wine, as Toone expertly pairs each course with the perfect vintage to elevate your dining experience.

Discover the Enchanting Charms of Ensenada

Beyond the vineyards and the culinary delights, Ensenada offers a wealth of cultural and historical attractions. Toone will take you on a guided tour of the city, showcasing its vibrant street art, historic landmarks, and the bustling markets where you can immerse yourself in the local culture.

You'll have the chance to visit the El Bufadero, a natural blowhole that creates spectacular geyser-like displays, and explore the La Bufadora Artisan Market, where local artists display their unique creations.

Personalized and Unforgettable

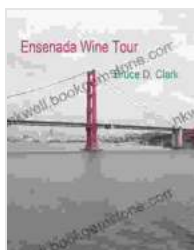

Joseph Toone's Ensenada wine tours are designed to create a personalized and unforgettable experience for each guest. With his in-depth knowledge of the region and his connections to the local winemakers, Toone will tailor the tour to your specific interests and preferences.

Whether you're a seasoned wine enthusiast seeking to expand your palate or a novice eager to discover the world of Mexican wine, Toone will create an itinerary that caters to your unique desires. You'll have the opportunity to ask questions, engage in lively discussions about wine, and create memories that will last a lifetime.
